

ROYAL Baking Powder Economy

The manufacturers of Royal Baking Powder have always declined to produce a cheap baking powder at the sacrifice of quality.

Royal Baking Powder is made from pure grape cream of tartar, and is the embodiment of all the excellence possible to be attained in the highest class baking powder.

Royal Baking Powder costs only a fair price, and is more economical at its price than any other leavening agent, because of the superlative quality and absolute wholesomeness of the food it makes.

Mixtures made in imitation of baking powders, but containing alum, are frequently distributed from door to door, or given away in grocery stores. Such mixtures are dangerous to use in food. In England, France, Germany and some sections of the United States their sale is prohibited by law. Alum is a dangerous mineral acid, and all physicians condemn baking powders containing it.

The label of alum baking powders must show the ingredients.

LAST SLEEP FROM CARBOLIC ACID

Mrs. Hattie Emory Ends Own Life in West End

WAS HOME ON A VISIT

Called to Mother, "Ma See Me Take the Last Dram," and After Bidding Parents Farewell, Expired on a Bed.

Calling to her aged mother, "Ma, see me take the last dram," Hattie Emory, wife of George Emory, drained a bottle of carbolic acid at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brown, and expired without a struggle, late Tuesday night.

Mrs. Emory who was about 30 years old, had been living at Bluffton. She came to the home of her parents Tuesday morning, and her mother states, apparently had something on her mind. Tuesday afternoon she sent to the drug store for a dime's worth of carbolic acid, saying she wanted it to kill some bugs about the house.

Near midnight she appeared very restless and got her mother up, and the two sat by the fire. Finally Mrs. Brown again went to bed, thinking that her daughter would do like wise. After some time, Mrs. Brown who had fallen asleep, awoke and her daughter made the above mentioned statement. She then came over to the bed of her parents and shook the hand of each, telling them good-bye and then threw herself across the bed. The woman's father, who is badly crippled from injuries received in the civil war got up, for the purpose of summoning assistance, but it was seen that she was dead. Her mouth was badly burned, as were her lips and neck.

An investigation showed that she had not only taken the small bottle which she had ordered, but that she had emptied another bottle which had been in the house, since the death of a son six weeks previous. Her parents, the deceased is a widow, her husband and one child are living in the city.

FOURTH OF ARMY SENT TO FRONTEER

U. S. Government is Preparing For Trouble Along the Mexican Borders.

Washington, March 7.—An army of approximately 20,000 men, representing all branches of the service is mobilizing along the Mexican border of the United States.

While every effort was made in official circles here to give this great movement the appearance of simply preparation for army maneuvers, yet there were persistent rumors that the government was preparing for more serious eventualities.

Confidential reports from Mexico of late have encouraged the belief of many that conditions in the Mexican government are far from being as satisfactory as official assertions seek to indicate. Immense foreign interests are at stake in Chihuahua, for example, and their owners have been very uneasy as to what would happen to them in case of widespread disorders.

There was a report in Washington today that urgent representations had been made to the state department that unless the United States government immediately made adequate preparations to protect American and foreign interests in northern Mexico, appeal would be, if it had not already been made, to Great Britain, to do so.

The report could not be definitely confirmed, but it was simultaneous with the official announcements that an army was already concentrating within striking distance of the Mexican border.

HOOPER DINES WITH PRESIDENT

Taft Also Has as His Guests Luke Lea, Sam Sells and Dick Austin.

Washington, March 6.—Gov. Ben W. Hooper, of Tennessee, arrived here this morning. He came in time to accept an invitation extended to him. Senator Luke Lea, Representatives R. W. Austin and Sam R. Sells and other President Taft to be guests at luncheon at the White House at 1:30 o'clock today.

A few moments before the hour set for the repast Congressman Austin was observed "hoofing it" in plain Democratic fashion through the White House grounds. Just then a fine, large automobile whizzed by. In it were Gov. Hooper, Senator Lea and Congressman Sells, they had come up from the Willard hotel. Representative Austin, however, had on a snug fitting frock coat and the white vest under it was certainly "all right." Really the member from the Knoxville district had on mighty good clothes, even if he was walking, while the other guests went up in a "devil wagon" as some veteran senators here call autos.

Opinions differ as to the meaning of this affair today. Some insist it has no political significance whatever, and that it is more social than otherwise. Others incline to the belief that President Taft wants to find out what is the outlook in Tennessee, and thought a good opportunity presented itself.

Those who hold it is entirely social says President Taft heard these Tennesseans would all be here today, and he concluded it "would be congenial to have them break bread" with him.

If there is real politics in the meeting that fact will come out later. The invited ones of course could say nothing in advance of the luncheon.

BLOOD POISON KILLS SMALL BOY

Five Year Old Son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bible, near Bybee Dead.

Blood poisoning, resulting from a small sore on his lip, caused the death of a five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bible, living near Bybee. The child, so it is stated found an old cartridge which he placed about his lips, and it came in contact with the sore, and as a result, blood poisoning set in. The face, lips, throat and head were terribly swollen, and the child died.
